Policy & Important Terms

- To ensure complete transparency, we've laid down a standard universal cancellation policy and terms applicable for all bookings made with us. Sometimes due to unforeseen circumstances, you may need to cancel or reschedule your booking. While we would want to extend all due consideration to your circumstances, but given airline, hotel and other supplier constraints and the nature of the industry we work in we are forced to collect the below cancellation fees as per the below policy.
- Please note that the hotel is solely responsible for providing all hotel services, including accommodations, amenities, and customer service. The travel agent acts solely as an intermediary and does not assume any liability or responsibility for the hotel services offered. We strongly recommend that guests independently verify and check the hotel details, including facilities, location, room types, and any other relevant information, prior to making a booking. Any issues or concerns regarding the hotel services should be directly addressed with the hotel management. The travel agent shall not be held accountable for any dissatisfaction or inconvenience caused during the stay at the hotel.
- Please be aware that the airlines hold full responsibility for any changes, rescheduling, or cancellations of flights. The travel agent acts solely as an intermediary and shall not be held liable for any modifications made by the airlines to the flight schedule. In the event of any changes, rescheduling, or cancellations, we advise passengers to directly contact the airline to seek assistance and resolve any issues. The travel agent shall not be responsible for any inconvenience, losses, or additional costs incurred due to such airline-related changes. We recommend passengers to stay updated with their flight status and any notifications from the airline regarding their bookings.
- Please note that certain hotels may require a deposit or collect taxes at the time of check-in. This is a hotel policy and not within the control or responsibility of the travel agent. Customers are required to pay any applicable deposits or taxes directly to the hotel at the time of check-in. The deposit or security amount cannot be paid at the time of package booking and must be settled with the hotel upon arrival. The travel agent shall not be held accountable for any deposits, taxes, or security payments required by the hotel, and any disputes or concerns regarding such payments should be addressed directly with the hotel management.

Payment Policy

- 50% amount of package advance.
- Rest amount on completion of bookings.

Important: The booking stands liable to be canceled if 100% payment is not received before 19 days from the date of departure. Booking policy is subject to change depending upon the travel period and destinations opted for. 100% payment may be required in advance for specific destinations or high end hotels.
